

Sharing Our Stories, Speaking Our Truth

poetry and prose at Café Crêperie

Guest Author Bio Sheet

Jo-Anne Barclay

About the Author

Having always been an animal lover, and after working any different jobs, Jo-Anne Barclay finally followed her heart and obtained a diploma as a veterinary assistant. She became the caregiver to a rabbit quite by accident, and fell in love with her. Soon rabbits being surrendered or needing special care found their way to her and in 2006, she started Running Rabbit Farm Rabbit Rescue Sanctuary. Now retired after over 20 years working in veterinary medicine, she currently resides in Guelph, sharing her home with her feline friend Forest and a few spoiled rabbits, running the rescue, crafting and working on the story of how she became The Bunny Lady. Bearly A Hare is her first published book.

About the Book

Easter is approaching quickly and the toymaker is seeing lots of stuffed rabbits find new homes. The teddy bear decides that he, too, wants to become the Easter Bunny, and learns a valuable lesson along the way...

Guest Author at Café Crêperie on Thursday, March 26, 2026