About the Books

Other People's Problems: Marion Reidel creates engaging characters and authentic dialogue, in often ridiculous scenarios.

Café Conversations: Coffee shops are where truths are shared, and relationships are built, or sometimes broken. Take a seat in this busy café. Enjoy a cup of coffee and eavesdrop on the drama unfolding around you.

We Drank Wine: The foibles of four women, their families and neighbours form a web of stories woven among the rituals of sharing wine. These accounts are a cosmic peek into the lives of everyday people.

About the Author

Marion Reidel took up writing following centuries of teaching Canada's youth. She regularly performs at Open Mic nights because she craves attention and loves to make people laugh. She promotes short fiction as the perfect literary form for today's busy readers. Careful observation provides insight and authenticity to her tales. She's an active member of Guelph's diverse writing community, and her goal is to amuse while sparking introspection. Her stories have won awards and local acclaim.
